DPU RESERVATION POLICY FOR ADMISSION TO
ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES PROGRAMMES

WHEREAS Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune popularly known as “DPU”, managed by Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth Society, Pune, was declared as “Deemed-to-be-University”, under Section 3 of University Grants Commission (UGC) Act, 1956 in 2003. To start with, there was one constituent college i.e. Dr. D. Y. Patil Medical College, Hospital and Research Centre, Pune. Later on a few more constituent colleges were established and / or brought under the ambit of the DPU.

AND WHEREAS today the Vidyapeeth has constituent institutions under its umbrella. All the institutions have the approval / recognition of the relevant statutory bodies to offer UG, PG Degree/Diploma, Super-specialty and Ph.D. Programmes in relevant and emerging disciplines, specializations and super specializations.

AND WHEREAS the admission to academic programmes offered and regulated by Statutory / Central Councils is governed by the norms laid down by concerned Statutory / Central Council.

AND WHEREAS as a Self-Financing Deemed to be University offering Health Sciences Programmes it is not supposed to provide seats under reservations. But out of its commitment to social equity, it has prepared the reservation policy for admission to Allied Health Sciences Programmes in DPU which are not having any Statutory / Central Councils. The reservation policy for admission to Allied Health Sciences Programmes in DPU is created in line with norms laid down by the Apex Commission - University Grants Commission (UGC).

AND WHEREAS the UGC Regulations prescribe for Institution Deemed to be University to implement the policy on reservations in admission, in accordance with provisions of the Constitution of India and any Act of Parliament for the time being in force and disclose all such information on its website.

OBJECTIVE

A DPU Policy to provide Reservation in admission to Allied Health Sciences Programmes for the students belonging to the Schedule Castes, Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Classes of Citizens against the seats reserved for such Class / Categories.

RESERVATION POLICY TO BE FOLLOWED IN DPU

In case of Health Sciences Programmes excluding the University offering academic programmes for which the reservation policy shall be as notified by the concerned central council. Whereas with reference to Non-Regulatory programmes that do not essentially come under the purview of the Statutory / Central Councils the norms laid down by the University Grants Commission (UGC) shall be adhered according to DPU Reservation Policy.

The Vidyapeeth shall provide for reservation in admission against the seats reserved for such Class / Categories as per the said policy.

The reservation of seats for respective categories shall be as per applicable laws prevailing in States/Union Territories. An All-India merit list of the eligible candidates shall be prepared on the basis of the merit in All India Common Entrance Test (AICET) conducted by Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, Pune and candidates shall be admitted to Health Sciences Programmes from the said lists only.

The candidate should have claimed the constitutional reservation in the original Online application form. For claiming of category, request for category claim after submission of application form will not be granted. During document verification process, if constitutional category claim is found to be incorrect, same will be rectified as per the document(s) available with the candidate. However no fresh claim for constitutional reservation i.e. from open category to reservation category will be considered.

If a candidate claiming reservation in online / offline application form does not submit online / produce offline Caste Certificate, then he / she will be automatically considered in open category if otherwise eligible for Open Category.

A candidate belonging to OBC will be required to produce non-creamy layer certificate valid up to specified date, at the time of physical document verification and at the time of admission also, failing which claim will not be granted. It is mandatory to produce Non-Creamy Layer Certificate (NCL) at the time of physical document verification, candidates producing NCL after the physical document verification will be treated as Open Candidates.

A Candidate belonging to 'Creamy Layer' amongst the OBC categories must note that the provision of reservation is NOT applicable to him / her. A candidate claiming benefit of reservation under these categories will be required to produce Non-Creamy Layer Certificate as specified in the Government Resolutions from time to time.

The distribution of seats at the disposal of Competent Authority will be made, by taking into consideration the constitutional reservations and the specified reservations.

The seat(s) remaining vacant from any category will be allotted to general category candidates.

The conditions under this policy are liable to change based on decisions taken by Central Government / UGC / Constitutional Authority / Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Court from time to time.

Any issue not dealt here-in above will be dealt with, when arising, fully and finally by the competent authority. Any amendments made by Competent Authority from time to time will be implemented.

MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 4th January, 2007/Pausa 14, 1928 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 3rd January, 2007, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE CENTRAL EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS (RESERVATION IN ADMISSION) ACT, 2006

No. 5 of 2007

[3rd January, 2007.]

An Act to provide for the reservation in admission of the students belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Classes of citizens, to certain Central Educational Institutions established, maintained or aided by the Central Government, and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Act, 2006. Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Definitions.

(a) "academic session" means the period in a calendar year, or a part thereof, during which a Central Educational Institution is open for teaching or instruction in any branch of study or faculty;

(b) "annual permitted strength" means the number of seats, in a course or programme for teaching or instruction in each branch of study or faculty authorised by an appropriate authority for admission of students to a Central Educational Institution;

(c) "appropriate authority" means the University Grants Commission, the Bar Council of India, the Medical Council of India, the All India Council for Technical Education or any other authority or body established by or under a Central Act for the determination, coordination or maintenance of the standards of higher education in any Central Educational Institution;

(d) "Central Educational Institution" means—

(i) a university established or incorporated by or under a Central Act;

(ii) an institution of national importance set up by an Act of Parliament;

(iii) an institution, declared as a deemed University under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, and maintained by or receiving aid from the Central Government;

(iv) an institution maintained by or receiving aid from the Central Government, whether directly or indirectly, and affiliated to an institution referred to in clause (i) or clause (ii), or a constituent unit of an institution referred to in clause (iii);

(v) an educational institution set up by the Central Government under the Societies Registration Act, 1860;

21 of 1860.

(e) "faculty" means the faculty of a Central Educational Institution;

(f) "Minority Educational Institution" means an institution established and administered by the minorities under clause (1) of article 30 of the Constitution and so declared by an Act of Parliament or by the Central Government or declared as a Minority Educational Institution under the National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions Act, 2004;

2 of 2005.

(g) "Other Backward Classes" means the class or classes of citizens who are socially and educationally backward, and are so determined by the Central Government;

(h) "Scheduled Castes" means the Scheduled Castes notified under article 341 of the Constitution;

(i) "Scheduled Tribes" means the Scheduled Tribes notified under article 342 of the Constitution;

(j) "teaching or instruction in any branch of study" means teaching or instruction in a branch of study leading to three principal levels of qualifications at bachelor (undergraduate) masters (postgraduate) and doctoral levels.

Reservation of seats in Central Educational Institutions.

3. The reservation of seats in admission and its extent in a Central Educational Institution shall be provided in the following manner, namely:—

(i) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, fifteen per cent. seats shall be reserved for the Scheduled Castes;

(ii) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, seven and one-half per cent. seats shall be reserved for the Scheduled Tribes;

(iii) out of the annual permitted strength in each branch of study or faculty, twenty-seven per cent. seats shall be reserved for the Other Backward Classes.

4. The provisions of section 3 of this Act shall not apply to—

Act not to apply in certain cases.

(a) a Central Educational Institution established in the tribal areas referred to in the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution;

(b) the institutions of excellence, research institutions, institutions of national and strategic importance specified in the Schedule to this Act.

Provided that the Central Government may, as and when considered necessary, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule;

(c) a Minority Educational Institution as defined in this Act;

(d) a course or programme at high levels of specialisation, including at the post-doctoral level, within any branch of study or faculty, which the Central Government may, in consultation with the appropriate authority, specify.

5. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (iii) of section 3 and in any other law for the time being in force, every Central Educational Institution shall, with the prior approval of the appropriate authority, increase the number of seats in a branch of study or faculty over and above its annual permitted strength so that the number of seats, excluding those reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Other Backward Classes, is not less than the number of such seats available for the academic session immediately preceding the date of the coming into force of this Act.

Mandatory increase of seats.

(2) Where, on a representation by any Central Educational Institution, the Central Government, in consultation with the appropriate authority, is satisfied that for reasons of financial, physical or academic limitations or in order to maintain the standards of education, the annual permitted strength in any branch of study or faculty of such institution cannot be increased for the academic session following the commencement of this Act, it may permit by notification in the Official Gazette, such institution to increase the annual permitted strength over a maximum period of three years beginning with the academic session following the commencement of this Act; and then, the extent of reservation for the Other Backward Classes as provided in clause (iii) of section 3 shall be limited for that academic session in such manner that the number of seats available to the Other Backward Classes for each academic session are commensurate with the increase in the permitted strength for each year.

6. The Central Educational Institutions shall take all necessary steps, which are required in giving effect to the provisions of sections 3, 4 and 5 of this Act, for the purposes of reservation of seats in admissions to its academic sessions commencing on and from the calendar year, 2007.

Reservation of seats in admissions to begin in calendar year, 2007.

7. Every notification made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the notification or both Houses agree that the notification should not be made, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification.

Laying of notifications before Parliament.
