The MRI is capable of imaging the whole body with applications for brain, spine, abdomen, heart, musculo-skeletal, breast etc. In addition to routine studies, advanced applications in neurology, orthopedics, whole body diffusion, non-contrast perfusion and high resolution peripheral imaging are available. In case of non-cooperative and pediatric patients, it is possible to correct motion artifacts. The imaging of abdomen can also be done with the help of this machine. Interestingly, the patient need not hold his breath while the process is carried out.

Other advanced applications like colour mapping of tracts of brain, functional brain imaging, brain perfusion studies without contrast injection along with whole body diffusion imaging are possible on this equipment. The other available tools are three dimensional (3D) acquisitions with sub-millimeter resolution of body, high resolution breast imaging, early detection of degeneration of cartilage and spectroscopy. Angiographies of limbs are also possible. While doing so, the patient need not change his position. The process is comfortable to the patient. Moreover, it can be done in no time.
